I want to remove some apps from my playstore and install them on a non-connected Android device so that I can provide them with a remote access. So, following the standard procedures I downloaded the apk from I received an.apk file with my ID and the SHA1 fingerprint that I input on the Google Play Console. The APK was not signed so I took a look on how I could solve that issue in Eclipse. In the META-INF folder there is the keystore file and the keystore.csr (certificate signing request). I assume that I will be able to sign 09e8f5149f
