She is also a Canadian singer and songwriter, having achieved national success with the song "A Thousand Kisses Deep" in 1998. She is a two-time Juno Award winner, having won the Best Country Album category in 2005 and the Best Country Solo Artist category in 2011. Eugenie began singing for the first time at the age of six. She began singing at her elementary school, performing gospel songs during Christmas plays. Throughout her childhood, Eugenie was fond of singing and creating music, particularly gospel music. Her love for singing is apparent in the fact that her favorite subjects in school were English and Math. At the age of seven, Eugenie began writing music. She taught herself keyboard, guitar and drums and began composing music. Her first song, "For Your Love", was written when she was eleven. The song won her a grand prize in a local talent contest.
